Gender	Male
Degree	B.A. Music
Current Position or Situation	Master's student at Kennedy State University
Primary choral professors with whom you have studied	Dr. Jennifer Hillson-Flanders, J. Paul Tilson, Mr. Albert Thomas was my high school director
Professional Experience	Was a long-term sub at Adam Co. Local Middle School for a year, was choir director at St. Luke's UMC, and a counselor at Walkaway Summer Music Camp, and I gave voice lessons
Affiliations	ACDA, NAFME, Mu Phi Epsilon
U.S. Area	Chicago, IL
Choral fields of interest:	Choir, show choir, musicals
Education & career interests:	I want to get a job in a high school choir but then I want to teach college choir someday too
What do you hope to gain from your ACDA Mentoring experience?	I want to understand all of the things I didn't learn as an undergraduate but that I think I need now
Describe the activities, interests, and/or hobbies that are most meaningful to you.	Singing, rock climbing, video games
Tell us something interesting about yourself (professional and/or personal) or your future plans.	I've always loved singing in choirs. That's why I was a music major at Kennedy. But after my year at Adams Co. I came to realize that there was so much more that I needed to learn. I hope that the mentor program can help me fill in the blanks. After that I hope to have a family, too.
